Lisbon, May 4, N. S.

THE 2d Inſtant being the Birth-Day of the Infante Dom Carlos, was obſerved at Court with the uſual Solemnity. The three Dutch Men of War that came in lately to careen, are making all poſſible Expedition to return to their Cruize at the Streights Mouth. Vice-Admiral Somelſdyck, with his Part of the Squadron, are to come here to clean as ſoon as they are relieved by theſe Ships. We have an Account of a Murder that was committed in the Month of March laſt, on board an Engliſh Veſſel called the William and Elizabeth. That Ship having paſſed the Streights Mouth, the Crew mutined and murdered William Mitchel the Maſter: They afterwards left the Ship on the Coaſt of Portugal, and came on Shore at Lagos in Algarve, where they diſperſed and fled different Ways to ſecure themſelves. Two of them eſcaped from Villa Nova in Algarve before the Fact was known, but four of the Crew were ſeized on the 3d of April laſt at St. Ubes, and are now in Priſon there. It is ſaid that the Marqueſs d'Abrantes will ſet out in a very ſhort time for Madrid.

Copenhagen, May 7, O. S. The Wind coming Weſterly the 2d Inſtant, Sir Charles Wager, with the Squadron of His Britannick Majeſty's Ships of War under his Command, proceeded from hence on the 3d at Four in the Morning, towards the Heighth of Stockholm; ſince which a Veſſel is come in, that ſaw him off Yſted, holding on his Courſe with a fair Wind.

Whitehall, May 16.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Algernon Earl of Hertford to be Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Wilts.
